

Case Study: TUI & UK and Ireland: Project Management

TUI is the world's largest holiday company working in 180 countries around the world and operates under 200 brands, most commonly First Choice, Thomson and Late Rooms .Com in the UK. The company which employs over 49,000 employees globally with 1,500 in the UK. TUI move over 30 million UK tourists and is the market leader in 27 key markets.

TUI asked us to develop an innovative project management course for one of its highly experienced teams of international managers, responsible for running key regions of the business. The needs of the group were pre-assessed and a bespoke initial course developed which met and challenged each of the delegates to undertake a significant review of how they run major projects within TUI.

“Richard really brought the course to life; his enthusiasm is excellent. The delivery was spot on and really got the training across. Excellent day, excellent trainer”

Gareth Williams, Area manager

“A refreshing, simple and surprisingly innovative approach to project management that even those new to the business can't fail to embrace” Paula Sullivan, Area Manager, Turkey

“A fabulous insight into project management - found the content simple to understand and use. Great structure and enthusiasm with course” Fiona Downie, Area Manager

“Richard was a positive, energetic trainer who made the day interesting and worthwhile” Sharon Johnstone, Area Manager

“ Very detailed and informative. Lots of ideas and tools to take away and apply” Adele Ward, Learning & Development manager

“ Very good delivery, enthusiasm and always checks that all have understood before moving on” Nikki Birrell, Area Manager

“Training was stimulation as well as engaging with lots of opportunity for involvement without forcing it” Louise Jacobs, Quality Assurance Manager

“Good to have relevant training and improve confidence and knowledge in this area”

Tracy Steele, Area Manager